

How to Take Inclusion to the Next Level

Is your belonging being hampered by bias?

Are you struggling to “diversify” your workforce?

Are you concerned by social trends (e.g., #MeToo) and backlash?

If so, we may be able to help. League of Allies has developed a Program of six integrated on-line courses focused on supporting your belonging via the notion of “inclusive synergy”: the superior performance generated when people from whatever backgrounds can work together from equal and balanced bases

“This is the best content I have seen produced on our platform.”

Jeff Weber, SVP People & Places, Instructure

Balance Through Belonging: Makes both business and personal cases for inclusive synergy

The Gender Contribution: Joins science with leadership styles and performance

Breaking Bias: Presents the prolific and profound effects of unintended bias and its impacts on synergy

The Box: Walks learners through a powerful process that can stop bias in its tracks

Boundaries: Their vital contributions, and means to establish, support, and respect them

Feedback and Recognition: Why they are gifts, their significance to synergy, and how to give and receive them
